iRead Webcomics! The New Frontier of Comics

Web comic artists Audra Furuichi and Scott Yoshinaga are the creators of nemu*nemu, a popular family-friendly comic featuring the adventures of Nemu and Anpan, and their owners Anise and Kana. They will provide a visual demonstration on the basics and process of professional comic creation.

About the artists:

Audra Furuichi garnered the attention of famed cartoonist, Charles Schulz who personally chose her comic strip, entitled "CultureSHOCK!", for the prestigious 1999 Scripps-Howard Charles M. Schulz College Cartooning Award. Furuichi has worked in California as a colorist for Marvel Comics and Antarctic Press.

Scott Yoshinaga has worked as a freelance graphic artist until he began a web design/hosting business. In 1998, he worked at a Honolulu newspaper for several years as the website manager.

Program is recommended for ages 12 and up. This free 45-minute program is sponsored by the Friends of the Library of Hawaii and the National Football League Charities. Program schedules are subject to change. Please contact the library at least two weeks in advance if you need a sign language interpreter or other special accommodations.
